To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and the Reſt of your Majeſty's Commiſſioners of Lieutenancy for the City of London.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and the Reſt of your Majeſty's Commiſſioners of Lieutenancy for the City of London, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our unfeigned Congratulations upon your Eſcape from the late daring Attempt on your Royal Perſon, in your Paſſage to and from Parliament.

While we deplore that there ſhould exiſt any one capable of conceiving an Act ſo deteſtable and atrocious, we return our moſt humble and hearty Thanks to the Supreme Being for the Preſervation of your Majeſty, as a ſingular Mark of Divine Favor towards all Ranks of your Majeſty's Subjects.

Your Majeſty's Commiſſioners of Lieutenancy, deeply ſenſible of the important Truſt with which your Majeſty has been pleaſed to honor them, deſire to aſſure your Majeſty of their unremitting and zealous Exertions to fulfil your Majeſty's gracious Intentions, by eſtabliſhing ſuch Diſcipline in the London Militia as ſhall provide for the Safety and Protection of the City of London, as well as contribute to the general Defence of theſe Kingdoms.

Sire, may the Almighty long continue to preſerve your Majeſty, where your Majeſty's Virtues have ſo juſtly placed you, enthroned in the Hearts of the Britiſh People.

By Order of the Court,

Edward Groſe Smith, Clerk.

To which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to return the following moſt gracious Anſwer:

I THANK you for this dutiful and loyal Addreſs, and for your Expreſſions of cordial Attachment to My Perſon and Government.

The Proofs which I have received of the Affection of My People on this Occaſion leave Me only to lament the Outrage which has been committed as a Violation of the Laws and Conſtitution, directly tending to ſubvert their deareſt Intereſts, for the Support and Maintenance of which I ſhall never ceaſe to uſe My utmoſt Endeavours.

They were all received very graciouſly, and had the Honour to kiſs His Majeſty's Hand.

St. James's, December 19.

THE following Addreſs from the Officers, Non-Commiſſioned Officers and Privates of the Fourteen Troops of Volunteer Yeomanry Cavalry of the County of Kent, has been preſented to the King by his Grace the Duke of Dorſet; which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Officers, Non-Commiſſioned Officers, and Privates of the Volunteer Yeomanry Infantry of the County of Kent, deeply affected with Indignation at the unprovoked, daring and atrocious Inſult lately offered to your Majeſty's Perſon in going to and returning from your Parliament, humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne with the moſt unanimous and cordial Congratulations on the providential Preſervation of our beloved Sovereign. Voluntarily united as we are in the Cauſe of good Order and Peace, we are at all Times ready to ſacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in the Protection of a Life ſo juſtly dear to us as your Majeſty's, in defeating the Attempts both of foreign and domeſtic Enemies, and in Defence of the eſtabliſhed Conſtitution of theſe Kingdoms.

St. James's, December 19.

THE following Addreſs has been preſented to the King; which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful Subjects, the Volunteer Yeomanry Cavalry of the Diviſion and Vicinity of Baſingſtoke, in the County of Southampton, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with Sentiments of perfect Loyalty and Attachment, and to expreſs, in Union with our Fellow Subjects in this County, the Indignation and Abhorrence we feel at the late daring Attack upon your Royal Perſon; an Attack, if poſſible, the more atrocious by being committed at a Time when your Majeſty was proceeding to the Exerciſe of one of the moſt important Functions preſcribed by the Conſtitution of theſe Realms.

While we offer our humble but heartfelt Congratulations to your Majeſty on your providential Eſcape from the Dangers of that treaſonable Outrage, we beg Leave at the ſame Time to repeat our ſolemn Aſſurances of uniform and ſteady Allegiance to your Majeſty, and our determined Reſolution, at the Hazard of every Thing we hold dear, to protect, ſupport and defend that Conſtitution which has long, but more eſpecially during your Majeſty's mild and equitable Reign, been the Pride of every true Briton and the Admiration of the World.

Signed, at the unanimous Requeſt of the Corps,

Charles Shawe Lefevre, Captain-Commandant.

[Preſented by Charles Shawe Lefevre, Eſq; Captain-Commandant.]

St. James's, December 19.

THE following Addreſſes have been preſented to the King; which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, the Dean and Chapter, the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Carliſle, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty's Royal Preſence, and to aſſure your Majeſty, that the late Inſult and Outrage on your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Dignity has filled our Minds with the deepeſt Anxiety and Concern.

Your Majeſty has moſt happily eſcaped the Effects of the intended Outrage and Violence; on this Event we at once deſire both to congratulate with every good Subject in your Majeſty's Realms, and to be thankful to Heaven for it's gracious Protection and Interpoſition.

Experience will not juſtify us in entertaining Suſpicion of the Loyalty of the common People. They may doubt on ſome Occaſions whether their Cries ſhall reach the Royal Ear, but they never doubt your Majeſty's paternal Care and Affection; and we are convinced, Sire, that even their rudeſt Solicitations would have been tempered, as at other Seaſons, with the ſincereſt Regard and Veneration towards your Majeſty's Perſon if their Judgments had not been miſguided, and their Paſſions inflamed by the Suggeſtions of artful and wicked Men.

It is therefore with much Pain and Indignation that we feel ourſelves conſtrained to to connect this atrocious and deteſtable Tranſaction with the many dangerous Endeavours which have lately been made to delude the Minds of the People by ſeditious Meetings and ſeditious Publications. When we ſay theſe Endeavours have been many and dangerous, we contemplate rather the Magnitude of the Crimes and the inceſſant Exertions of a Few, than the peaceable Diſpoſitions and the good Principles of the great Body of your Majeſty's faithful Subjects; for we are perſuaded that there never was a Time in the Hiſtory of this Country when a vaſt Majority of the People were actuated by a more firm and affectionate Attachment to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and to the illuſtrious Houſe of Brunſwick, by a higher Senſe of the ineſtimable Value of the Conſtitution, or by a more determined Zeal and Promptitude to ſupport it.

Permit us, Sire, at the ſame Time that we acknowledge and lament the Exiſtence of a few diſaffected Perſons, to derive Comfort and Confidence from a firm Expectation that the Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Counſels and of Parliament will deviſe ſuch ſuitable Proviſions and Regulations as may in future effectually defeat their wicked Intentions, and by preventing, repreſſing, and puniſhing the Circulation of pernicious Doctrines, enſure the future Safety of your Majeſty's Perſon and of our excellent Conſtitution in Church and State.

The Character of theſe turbulent Spirits is now better underſtood than formerly; and for that Reaſon it will be eaſier to guard againſt their dark Deſigns. They are evidently diſtinguiſhed from the great Maſs of the labouring Poor by a more extenſive Knowledge and by a better Education than can be ſuppoſed to belong to that Claſs of the Community; and in their ſeditious Productions it is often not difficult to trace the combined Operation of a wild Imagination, of profane and atheiſtical Principles, of immoral Habits, and of deſperate Fortunes.

Againſt the deſtructive Violence and Innovation of ſuch wicked and infatuated Reformers it is impoſſible for us not to cheriſh a well-founded Hope, that the Providence of Almighty God will ever be diſplayed in protecting your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Kingdoms, and in tranſmitting to Poſterity the Britiſh Conſtitution, as a practical Contraſt to all viſionary Schemes of Government.

Aſcribing, as we are taught to do from the higheſt Authority, every Eſcape from Danger which we experience, and every Bleſſing which we enjoy, to the wiſe Direction of an over-ruling Providence, we muſt ſtill be careful not to be found wanting to ourſelves. Your Majeſty, by a late moſt gracious Addreſs to the Houſes of Parliament, has covered your domeſtic Enemies with Shame and Confuſion. They have ſeen that at the very Moment when they were meditating the blackeſt Deſigns, your Majeſty's Royal Breaſt was filled with the moſt anxious and compaſſionate Regards for the Happineſs of your People; and they have ſeen alſo that your Majeſty well underſtood the true Situation of the Country, and met the great Council of the Nation with Diſpoſitions and Reſolutions which were framed with Wiſdom, Moderation, and Firmneſs.

Animated by ſuch an Example, we are confident that all the Lovers of civil and religious Liberty will, according to their different Ranks and Profeſſions, unite as one Man to ſupport your Majeſty's mild and equitable Government, and to give Strength and Energy to the Determinations of the Legiſlature.

As Clergymen we feel ourſelves, in the preſent critical Conjuncture, peculiarly called upon to inculcate on the Minds of the People the Neceſſity and Reaſonableneſs of Submiſſion to the Laws, and of a ſincere Belief in the Authority of the holy Scriptures. It has appeared but too plain, that modern Revolutioniſts not only have in View the entire Subverſion of all legal Governments, but alſo that they wiſh to efface from the Minds of Men every Sentiment of Awe and Veneration for the Name of God and of his Chriſt.

May Almighty God long preſerve in Health and Proſperity the Monarch of this Country to be a tender Father of his People, a powerful Defender of the Proteſtant Faith, and a bleſſed Inſtrument of Providence for the Suppreſſion and Defeat of the wild Conſpiracies of ſanguinary and democratical Tyrants.

[Preſented by his Grace the Archbiſhop of Canterbury.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacon, Chancellor and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Peterborough.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacon, Chancellor and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Peterborough, earneſtly deſire thus to approach your Royal Preſence, having our Hearts deeply impreſſed with the utmoſt Grief and Concern, as well as burning with the livelieſt Indignation at the late horrible Attempt, too plainly levelled againſt your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, and at that daring Violation of our moſt excellent Conſtitution, which has been for a long Series of Years the Envy of ſo many Nations

Nation, the Pride and Glory of this. We moſt ſincerely and fervently congratulate your Majeſty upon your providential Eſcape from an Outrage, which we are fully perſuaded in our own Minds can only ſerve to render your Majeſty, your Family and Government over us, ſtill more dear and precious in our Eſtimation, and thoſe vile Traytors to, and Enemies to both, ſtill more deteſtable in the Eyes of God and Man.

Your Majeſty may be well aſſured that nothing will be wanting on our Parts, as far as in us lieth, to defeat all dangerous Deſigns againſt your invaluable Life, as well as every Attempt to diſturb or weaken your Majeſty's mild and gracious Reign over us: And we moſt ſincerely and devoutly pray to the Almighty Diſpoſer of all Events, that He would be pleaſed to continue your Majeſty long, very long, in Health and Safety, ſtill our Ruler and Governor; and that when it ſhall pleaſe Him, in his Divine Wiſdom, to ſeparate you from an affectionate People, and to remove you from thoſe Toils and Troubles which are inſeparable from an earthly Throne, He may receive you to Himſelf, and tranſlate you into a Kingdom of endleſs Peace, Felicity and Glory.

[Preſented by his Grace the Archbiſhop of Canterbury.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons, and other Clergy of the Dioceſe of Chicheſter, do, with all Humility, beg Leave to offer to your Majeſty our moſt ſincere Congratulations upon the Deliverance of your ſacred Perſon from the great and imminent Danger to which it was expoſed by a late moſt daring and deteſtable Attempt againſt it; an Attempt which has ſo juſtly and ſo generally alarmed the Fears of your faithful Subjects, and which, God be praiſed, by the merciful Interpoſal of his Providence, you have happily eſcaped.

We cannot now but reflect, with Pleaſure, upon all the Advantages we enjoy under your Majeſty's paternal Care and Protection; to which alone, under God, we are indebted for them: That the chief Object of your Attention is, like that of your Royal Anceſtors, the fixing and preſerving our Conſtitution, both in Church and State, upon the firmeſt Baſis; and by this Means connecting, what is ſcarce ever united in other Kingdoms, the Honour, Influence and Proſperity of your Government with the Happineſs of your People.

Excited by theſe juſt Sentiments, it would be unpardonable in us not to take this publick Opportunity of expreſſing our Joy and Thankfulneſs for the Preſervation of your Majeſty's moſt valuable and important Life, and of Courſe the Continuance of our preſent Felicity, which we cannot but conſider as involved in it.

May that God, whom you conſtantly and devoutly ſerve, and whoſe gracious Protection you have now ſo ſignally experienced, preſerve you a long and ſhining Example of ſincere Piety and the pureſt Morals, exerciſed and maintained in the higheſt Station; make you a bleſſed Inſtrument in the Hands of his Providence, to promote the ſame virtuous and religious Principles among your Subjects, to eſtabliſh the Freedem, Commerce and Security of your Country upon a durable and ſure Foundation; and to diſpenſe to a grateful and happy People every other Bleſſing of a glorious and peaceful Reign.

[Preſented by his Grace the Archbiſhop of Canterbury.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, and the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Glouceſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Biſhop, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, and the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Glouceſter, impreſſed with the deepeſt Gratitude to Almighty God for his many providential Interpoſitions in Behalf of this Nation, humbly requeſt your Majeſty's Acceptance of our warmeſt Congratulations on a new and ſignal Inſtance of the Divine Goodneſs, in your Majeſty's late Deliverance from a wicked and deſperate Attempt, by which the Safety of your Majeſty's Perſon and of our excellent Conſtitution was alike equally endangered.

Inſtructed by the Example of a neighbouring Kingdom, we wanted not the Evidence of ſo daring an Outrage to be thoroughly convinced of the pernicious Tendency of thoſe Doctrines, which have produced in that Country their natural Fruits, Anarchy and Bloodſhed; and which have been too ſucceſsfully employed in corrupting the Morals and exciting a Spirit of Diſcontent and Inſurrection in the Minds of the lower Orders of the People in every other civilized Government. We cannot, however, but conſider it as an awful and inconteſtable Proof of the alarming Progreſs which thoſe Principles have made amongſt ourſelves, and an abundant Juſtification of the Wiſdom of the Legiſlature in deviſing other and more effectual Means than the preſent Laws afford, both for the better Security of your Majeſty's Perſon, and for the Suppreſſion of thoſe tumultuous and illegal Meetings, where the ſacred Name of Liberty is uſed only as a Cloak of Maliciouſneſs, and where the Preachers of Sedition conceal from the deluded Multitude their Deſigns of ſubverting the Conſtitution under the ſpecious Pretext of reforming it.

As Miniſters of that Religion, which teaches us, at the ſame Time, to fear God and to honour the King, we are manifeſtly required, and will conſtantly endeavour to inculcate upon the Minds of thoſe committed to our Charge the indiſpenſable Duties of Loyalty to your Majeſty and peaceable Subjection to the eſtabliſhed Laws. As Britons, we feel and rejoice in the Bleſſings of a free and equal Government. We are fully appriſed of the ineſtimable Value of both our religious and civil Liberties; and warranted, by the uniform Experience of your paſt Conduct, in believing them to be equally dear to your Majeſty, we pray that your Majeſty may long continue to be their ſovereign Guardian and Protecter, and that, under the Government of your Royal Houſe, they may be tranſmitted unimpaired to our lateſt Poſterity.

[Preſented by his Grace the Archbiſhop of Canterbury.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop and Chapter, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Landaff.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Biſhop and Chapter, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Landaff, beg Leave to expreſs to your Majeſty our ſincere Abhorrence of every Attempt tempt, ſecret or open, againſt your Majeſty's Perſon and Government. We conſider the Sacredneſs of your Majeſty's Perſon as a wiſe and fundamental Law of the Land; and we have for ſo many Years experienced the Equity and Lenity of your Government as to be perſuaded that your Majeſty can have no Enemies in this Country, except amongſt thoſe who are loſt to every Senſe of Honour, Virtue, and Religion.

We are thankful to God for the late providential Eſcape which He hath vouchſafed to your Majeſty, at a Period ſo critical when a Turbulency of Spirit, ſubverſive of all Government, and deſtructive of the Ends of all political Society, ſeems to have unhappily invaded the Minds of many. We think it our Duty to come forward with a ſolemn Declaration of our Loyalty to your Majeſty's Perſon, of Attachment to your Family, and of our Determination to ſupport, with our Lives and Fortunes, the Conſtitution of our Country as eſtabliſhed at the Revolution.

[Preſented by his Grace the Archbiſhop of Canterbury.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Roman Catholic Peers, Commoners and Clergy of Great Britain.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

DEEPLY impreſſed with unfeigned Gratitude for the invaluable Bleſſings which we, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Roman Catholic Peers, Commoners and Clergy of your Kingdom of Great Britain, have, in a peculiar Manner, derived from and now enjoy under your Majeſty's mild Government, we beg Leave to approach your Royal Perſon, and to aſſure your Majeſty, that it is with equal Grief and Indignation we have heard of the wicked and atrocious Attack recently made upon your Majeſty's Royal Perſon.

We lament that there ſhould exiſt in your Majeſty's Dominions any Perſon ſo flagitious, and ſo loſt to every Sentiment of Religion and Loyalty, as to be capable of perpetrating ſo treaſonable an Act againſt the moſt mild and beneficent of Sovereigns.

Permit us, Sire, to offer our moſt ſincere Congratulations to your Majeſty on your providential Eſcape from the deſperate Attempt.

Independent of the loyal Affection which animates us, in common with our Fellow Subjects, we, in a peculiar Manner, feel anxious for your Majeſty's Safety, under whoſe auſpicious Government many of the conſtitutional Rights of Britiſh Subjects have been reſtored to us.

We beg Leave moſt humbly to renew our Aſſurances to your Majeſty, that we will on all Occaſions, by every Means in our Power, moſt ſtrenuouſly ſupport and defend your ſacred Perſon and Government, on which the Proſperity and Happineſs of your People ſo much depend; and that it is our moſt fervent Prayer, that your Majeſty may long live the beloved Sovereign of theſe Realms, and continue to be the Object of Divine Favour and Protection.

[Preſented by the Right Hon. Lord Arundel and the Hon. Mr. Petre.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Montgomery, attached to your Majeſty by every poſſible Tie of Allegiance, Loyalty and Gratitude for the innumerable Bleſſings we have experienced during your Majeſty's benign and paternal Reign, and impreſſed with the utmoſt Degree of Indignation at the atrocious and outrageous Attempt recently made upon your Royal Perſon, humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne, and offer our moſt heartfelt and unfeigned Congratulations upon your Majeſty's providential Deliverance.

We lament that the Honour of our National Character has been polluted by the Atrocity of ſuch a Band of Ruffians, but we moſt cordially hope and truſt they will ſpeedily be brought to ſuffer Puniſhments commenſurate with the Enormity of their Crimes.

We implore the Almighty for a long Continuance of your Majeſty's Reign in the Hearts of a brave, free, loyal and united People, and that your Majeſty may be thereby enabled to tranſmit to Poſterity, free and inviolate, our excellent Conſtitution, the Pride and Glory of Britons, and the Envy and Admiration of ſurrounding Nations.

Signed, by Order of the Meeting, this 14th Day of December, 1795.

Lawton Parry, Sheriff.

[Preſented by Francis Lloyd, Eſq; Repreſentative in Parliament for the ſaid County.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and others, Inhabitants of the County of Cardigan, in purſuance of public Notice aſſembled, beg Leave to approach your Royal Perſon, with the moſt affectionate Sentiments of Veneration and Reſpect, to expreſs our Horror and Indignation at the late moſt daring Aſſault and flagitious Outrage offered to your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon in your Majeſty's Paſſage to and from your Parliament. We, who enjoy every Bleſſing derived to us, in common with our Fellow Subjects, from your Majeſty's mild and paternal Government, are unable in adequate Terms to expreſs our Concern that there are within your Majeſty's Dominions Perſons ſo daringly wicked as to hazard, by ſuch Inſults and Violence, the Safety of your Royal Perſon, and therein the Happineſs of all your People.

It is therefore with the moſt profound Sentiments of Gratitude to the Supreme Diſpoſer of all Events that we have to congratulate your Majeſty on your providential Eſcape from ſuch traiterous Attacks, dangerous at once to the public Tranquillity and the glorious Conſtitution, of which your Majeſty forms ſo important a Part.

Thomas Bonſall, High Sheriff.

[Preſented by Thomas Bonſall, Eſq; High Sheriff of the ſaid County.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Cornwall, humbly approach the Throne to offer our moſt ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's late providential Eſcape from an Attack on your Majeſty's Perſon of the moſt daring and flagitious Nature.

If a Crime of ſuch extenſive Miſchief, and of ſuch peculiar Malignity, could poſſibly admit of any Aggravation, gravation, we might preſume to obſerve, that at a Moment ſo ſolemn as that when your Majeſty was proceeding to open the High Court of Parliament, it argued more than common Depravity in thoſe infatuated Miſcreants, who, ceaſing to conſider themſelves as Subjects, had caſt off the Feelings of Men, and ſcrupled not to attempt the Life of their Sovereign, engaged in the higheſt Functions of his Royal Office.

We ſpare ourſelves the Pain of reciting, and your Majeſty of recollecting, the wicked Arts by which this Influence has been produced on weak Minds by deſigning and ambitious Men. The ſcandalous Miſrepreſentations which have been practiſed to ſeduce the Unwary, the criminal Hopes inſtilled into the Idle and Profligate, all aiming at one and the ſame Object, the Degradation and Extinction of Monarchy, and the Subverſion of our eſtabliſhed Conſtitution both in Church and State.

Animated with theſe Sentiments, and partaking of that Joy which the late important Succeſſes of your Majeſty's Forces and thoſe of our Allies have diffuſed through all Ranks of your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, we addreſs our fervent Prayers to the Diſpoſer of all human Events, for a long Continuance of your Majeſty's Reign in Health, Proſperity and Glory, and with an ardent Hope for the Reſtoration of the Bleſſings of Peace, whenever the ſame can be ſecured to us on Terms conſiſtent with the Stability of your Majeſty's Throne, and the laſting Intereſts of your People.

Ralph Allen Daniell, Sheriff, in the Name and on the Behalf of the County of Cornwall.

[Preſented by the Earl of Mount-Edgcumbe, accompanied by Sir William Lemon, Bart. and Francis Gregor, Eſq; Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid County.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, Yeomen and other Inhabitants of the County of Kent, humbly approach the Throne to offer our moſt ſincere Congratulations on the providential Eſcape your Majeſty has recently experienced.

We humbly beg Leave to teſtify our Abhorrence and Deteſtation of the atrocious Aſſault made upon your Majeſty in going to and returning from your Parliament, and to aſſure your Majeſty of our inviolable Attachment to your Royal Perſon and Government.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty that we are fully ſenſible of the ſuperior Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and juſt Adminiſtration of the Laws of our wiſe, free and approved Conſtitution.

That we were never more deeply impreſſed with a Conviction of the Importance of your Majeſty's Life, nor ever more grateful for its Preſervation.

It is our fervent Wiſh and Prayer that your Majeſty may long continue to reign upon the Throne of theſe Kingdoms, and in the Hearts of a loyal, faithful and united People.

[Preſented by Sir Edward Knatchbull, Bart. one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid County.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

SIRE,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Milton Volunteer Company of Infantry, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon with our moſt ſincere Congratulations on your providential Eſcape from the late atrocious, premeditated and deſperate Attack on your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, and to expreſs our total Abhorrence and Deteſtation of ſo baſe and execrable an Attempt.

Permit us, moſt gracious Sovereign, to add our warmeſt and moſt heartfelt Wiſhes for the Prolongation and Support of your Majeſty's moſt mild and happy Government; a Government ſecuring to your Majeſty's Subjects that Protection and Felicity which renders it moſt deſervedly the Envy of ſurrounding Nations.

And ſuffer us, Sire, with our moſt ardent Prayers for the Continuation of your Reign, to offer thoſe Services to your Majeſty and our Country for which you have been graciouſly pleaſed to ſanction our taking up Arms, with a full Aſſurance of our unalterable and unſhaken Loyalty and Attachment to your Majeſty; and that we ſhall at all Times be ready to ſtand forth with our Lives and Property in Support of your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon and Government.

Signed, at the Requeſt, and on the Behalf of ourſelves and the Reſt of the Company, this 7th Day of December, 1795.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Bedford.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Bedford, beg Leave to offer our moſt ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential Eſcape from the late daring Attack upon your Royal Perſon, and to expreſs the deepeſt Concern that there ſhould be found within your Majeſty's Dominions any Perſon wicked enough to endeavor to impede your Progreſs to and from your Parliament in open Defiance of the Laws, and in Violation of all Order, Decency and Reſpect to your high and exalted Station; and we do moſt ardently hope that ſuch Perſon or Perſons, ſo breaking the Laws and committing an Act ſo treaſonable, may be diſcovered and ſuffer the Puniſhment the Offence ſo juſtly deſerves.

At the ſame Time we cannot help thinking that ſuch evil and malicious Deſigns are ſtirred up and excited by the many ſeditious Meetings and Aſſemblies held in and about the Metropolis; but we are in great Meaſure relieved from the Apprehenſion of any future evil Conſequences of theſe Aſſemblies, by the Hope that Parliament will, in its Wiſdom, provide ſuch Meaſures as may ſuppreſs Meetings, which are not only highly offenſive to the Public Peace,

Peace, and the good Order of Society, but alſo dangerous to the happy Conſtitution of this Realm.

We lament the Calamities of War in common with the reſt of our Fellow Subjects, and we have full Confidence that your Majeſty's Endeavours will not be wanting to obtain the Bleſſings of Peace whenever they can be had conſiſtently with the Honor, Dignity and Welfare of this Country.

John Harvey, High Sheriff.

[Preſented by the Earl of Offory, Lord Lieutenant, accompanied by J. Harvey, Eſq; High Sheriff, and George Oſborne, Bart.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Sheriff, Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County of Derby, now aſſembled at our County Hall, beg Leave to expreſs to your Majeſty our indignant Abhorrence of the audacious and aggravated Outrages lately offered to your Majeſty when engaged in the Exerciſe of the higheſt Function of your Royal Office, and to aſſure your Majeſty of our ſteady Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and the Conſtitution of theſe Realms. May your Majeſty long continue to reign on the Throne of theſe Kingdoms, and in the Hearts of a faithful and united People.

Signed at the Requeſt, and on Behalf of the County, by Willliam Drury Lowe, Sheriff.

Derby, December 10, 1795.

[Preſented by William Drury Lowe, Eſq; Sheriff of the ſaid County.]

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace, Commiſſioners of Supply and Clergy of the County of Sutherland, in North Britain, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty's Throne humbly to expreſs our juſt Abhorrence and Indignation at the daring Outrages lately offered to your Majeſty's Perſon in your Majeſty's Paſſage to and from the Houſes of Parliament.

That thoſe inſulting Outrages have proceeded from Enemies to the Britiſh Conſtitution we have no Doubt; the many perſonal Virtues ſo conſpicuouſly diſplayed during your Majeſty's Reign, which may God prolong; your Majeſty's Conſtitutional Exerciſe of the Regal Power; the Juſtice and Clemency with which your Majeſty has governed theſe Kingdoms, joined to the Exerciſe of every human Virtue, muſt have left your Majeſty without one perſonal Enemy: It is with Pleaſure, therefore, we obſerve your Majeſty's Parliament has loſt no Time in deviſing ſuch Meaſures as tend not only to prevent a Repetition of the late Inſults to your Majeſty's Perſon, but are calculated alſo to preſerve to all your Majeſty's Subjects the ineſtimable Bleſſings which, in common with them, we enjoy under our happy Conſtitution of Church and State.

That the recent juſt War in which your Majeſty is engaged may be attended with ſigral Succeſs by Sea and by Land, in every Quarter of the Globe, and terminate in an honourable and laſting Peace: That the Bleſſings of the Britiſh Conſtitution may be tranſmitted to our lateſt Poſterity: That your Majeſty's Reign may be long and proſperous, and your Majeſty's Perſon be under the Protection of Almighty God, are the fervent Prayers of us, your Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects.

George Dempſter, Preſes.

Dornoch, November 30, 1795.

[Preſented by Earl Gower.]

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Town Council of the ancient Borough of Dornoch, in the County of Sutherland, in our own Names, and in Name of the whole Community, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty humbly to expreſs our warm Indignation and juſt Abhorrence of the late daring Outrages offered to your Majeſty's Perſon in your Majeſty's Paſſage to the Houſes of Parliament.

Your Majeſty's many princely and amiable Qualities ſo conſpicuouſly and invariably diſplayed during your Majeſty's mild Reign over theſe Kingdoms have not been calculated to create perſonal Enemies to your Majeſty, but, on the contrary, to inſpire every Friend to the Britiſh Conſtitution with Sentiments of the higheſt Reſpect, Affection and Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government: It is therefore with the greateſt Satisfaction that we, as Friends to both, obſerve your Majeſty's Parliament has loſt no Time in deviſing Means to repreſs the Inſolence and counteract the Malice of the Enemies of our happy Conſtitution, by whom the late Outrages, we have no Doubt, muſt have been perpetrated.

That your Majeſty's Reign may be long and proſperous, and your Majeſty's Illuſtrious Perſon and Family ever ſafe under the Protection of Almighty God, is the fervent Prayer of us, your Majeſty's dutiful Subjects,

Signed in Name, and by Appointment of the Magiſtracy and Community, by Hugh M'Cullock, Preſes.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Miniſters of the Preſbytery of Selkirk, embrace this earlieſt Opportunity in our Power of expreſſing our deep Regret at the daring Outrage lately offered to your Majeſty's Perſon, together with our ſincere Thankfulneſs to Almighty God, that it was not attended with the worſt Conſequences, and our Hopes that what is beſt will be done for your Safety in future,

We beg Leave, at the ſame Time to aſſure your Majeſty of our inviolable Attachment to your Family and Government, and of Reſolutions to perſevere in our Endeavours to impreſs on the People under our Care a due Regard for our admirable Conſtitution, Reverence for it's Laws, and Affection for a Monarch not leſs diſtinguiſhed by the amiable Virtues of private Life, than by an uniform Tenor of publick Conduct favourable to the Liberty and Happineſs of his Subjects.

The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace and other Magiſtrates of the Shire of Roſs, aſſembled at Tain on the 11th of November, 1795.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Freeholders, Juſtices of Peace and other Magiſtrates of the Shire of Roſs here aſſembled, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty's Throne with Expreſſions of the moſt unfeigned Loyalty and Attachment to your ſacred Perſon, and to congratulate your Majeſty on the narrow Eſcape you have lately made from the daring Attempt of ſome profligate, ſeditious and unprincipled Ruffians, at the ſame Time to felicitate ourſelves and all your well-diſpoſed Subjects in theſe Kingdoms that the Attempt has been ſo providentially fruſtrated.

We beg Leave to expreſs our ſincere Hope, that your Majeſty may long reign over a Nation ſo univerſally ſenſible of the Bleſſings they enjoy under your mild and auſpicious Government, and ſo ſincerely attached to your ſacred Perſon and illuſtrious Family.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Councilmen of the Borough of Boſton in the County of Lincoln, in Common Hall aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Councilmen of the ancient Borough of Boſton, beg Leave to offer to your Majeſty our moſt hearty Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential Eſcape from the late moſt audacious and wicked Attempt againſt your Royal Perſon, and to expreſs our utmoſt Indignation and Abhorrence of ſuch atrocious Conduct.

We view with infinite Satisfaction the Zeal and Activity of the Legiſlature in endeavouring to prevent ſuch riotous Proceedings in future; and we pray to Almighty God that your Majeſty may long live to reign over a happy, free and grateful People.

Given under our Common Seal at the Guildhall of the ſaid Borough, the 10th Day of December, 1795.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Aldermen, Bridgemen and Burgeſſes, and other the principal Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Henley upon Thames, in the County of Oxford.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Aldermen, Bridgemen and Burgeſſes, and other principal Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Henley upon Thames, in the County of Oxford, beg Leave to offer to your Majeſty our ſincere and heartfelt Congratulations on your Eſcape from the late horrid and outrageous Attack on your Royal Perſon.

On a former Occaſion we pledged ourſelves, in the moſt ſolemn Manner, to ſtand forth in the Support of the excellent Conſtitution of the Country under it's preſent Form of King, Lords and Commons, and at that Time we likewiſe publicly declared we would uſe our utmoſt Endeavours to prevent and ſuppreſs all unlawful and ſeditious Meetings, as likewiſe the Circulation of all miſchievous and inflammatory Papers within our Juriſdiction; we now beg Leave to renew our former Aſſurances, and to declare we will uſe our utmoſt Exertions to enforce a due Obedience to the Laws and for the Protection of your Majeſty's Royal Perſon; and ſhould the exiſting Laws be found inſufficient for the above Purpoſe, we truſt that the Legiſlature will enact ſuch further Laws for the Security of the Conſtitution and of your Majeſty's Perſon as in their Wiſdom they ſhall think neceſſary.

Firmly attached to our moſt excellent Conſtitution and to your Majeſty's Perſon, we ſincerely hope your Majeſty may long continue to reign over a loyal, free and happy People.

[Preſented by the Earl of Macclesfield.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's loyal and moſt dutiful Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Towns of Manchester and Salford, and the Neighbourhood thereof, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our moſt ſincere and cordial Congratulations on your late providential Deliverance from the barbarous Attempt of deſperate and deſigning Men, at the very Moment when your Majeſty was diſcharging one of the moſt important Functions of your Royal Office.

We have obſerved with Concern that many daring Societies have been inſtituted in theſe Kingdoms for the Propagation of ſeditious and rebellious Maxims, and are ſenſible ſuch an atrocious Act of Treaſon could never have been attempted againſt your Majeſty's Perſon had not the outrageous Traitors been encouraged and incited by the violent and indefatigable Exertions of thoſe wicked Societies.

We therefore obſerve with heartfelt Satisfaction that the Wiſdom of Parliament is now pleaſed to interfere in ſtopping the Progreſs of ſuch evil Societies, and alſo in more effectually conſulting the Security of your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon.

We return our humble Thanks to your Majeſty for the gracious Aſſurance which you were pleaſed to give your Parliament, that you are willing to procure for your People the Bleſſing of Peace, when ſuch Peace can be obtained upon a permanent and honourable Baſis.

tachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government. We have heard, with the deepeſt Concern and Indignation, of the wicked Attempt made upon your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, and we ſincerely congratulate your Majeſty and our Fellow Subjects that it hath pleaſed Providence to preſerve your Royal Perſon, and thereby to continue to your People the Bleſſings they have ſo long enjoyed under your Majeſty's mild and proſperous Reign.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Conſtables, Burgeſſes and other Inhabitants of the Port, Town and Borough of Minehead, beg Leave to expreſs our deepeſt Concern at the late moſt daring Attack on your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, in your Paſſage to and from your Parliament, with our Acknowledgments to Divine Providence for your Majeſty's happy Eſcape from perſonal Injury. We expreſs our Confidence in the Wiſdom and Diſcretion of Parliament, that ſuch Meaſures will be adopted as may effectually put a Stop to the Growth of thoſe Principles, which lead to the Commiſſion of ſuch illegal and atrocious Acts, and which, if permitted to exiſt, we deem to be incompatible with the Safety of this Realm.

Impreſſed with theſe Sentiments of Loyalty and Affection, we could not view but with the utmoſt Abhorrence and Indignation the daring Inſult offered to your Majeſty's Dignity, and the moſt nefarious Attempt made upon your ſacred Perſon, in going to and returning from your Parliament. We offer our moſt ſincere Thankſgiving to the Moſt High for the providential Protection vouchſafed to your Majeſty, and we congratulate your Majeſty moſt cordially on your Eſcape from that Danger.

While we are aſſiduouſly employed in inſtructing the People under our Charge in the Duties of Religion and Morality, we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we are likewiſe attentive in inculcating upon them a becoming Regard to your Majeſty's Perſon, with due Subjection to all lawful Authority, and a proper Eſtimation of the Benefits of our moſt excellent Conſtitution. That Almighty God, the Father of Mercies, may prolong your Majeſty's Life as a Bleſſing to theſe Realms, that He may pour down His beſt Bleſſings on the Queen, the Prince and Princeſs of Wales, and on all the Branches of your Royal and illuſtrious Family, is the earneſt Prayer of, may it pleaſe your Majeſty, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Miniſters of the Preſbytery of Inverneſs, met in Preſbytery.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Town Council of the Burgh of North Berwick.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Town Council of your Royal Burgh of North Berwick, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty, to expreſs the Indignation we feel at the late unprovoked and daring Attack made upon your ſacred Perſon, by ſeditious and unprincipled Men, with a Deſign to overturn that happy Conſtitution which has ſo long diſtinguiſhed us among the Nations. At the ſame Time we declare our firm Purpoſe to ſupport, with our Lives and Fortunes, your Majeſty's mild and equitable Government.

Being convinced that the Security of the Subjects depends ſolely upon the Safety of the King, we ſee, with the greateſt Satisfaction, thoſe wholeſome Meaſures now adopted by your Majeſty's Two Houſes of Parliament, for the Protection of your Perſon and Government, and for the Suppreſſion of all ſeditious Societies.

While we feel the warmeſt Sentiments of Gratitude to Heaven for your Majeſty's Preſervation, we would beſeech Almighty God to bleſs you with a long and proſperous Reign, and that the Bleſſings we now enjoy may be tranſmitted unimpaired to lateſt Generations.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Independent Company of Volunteers of Beverley, in the Eaſt Riding of the County of York.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Beverley Independent Volunteers, beg Leave humbly to offer to your Maje y our ſincereſt Congratulations on your providential Eſcape from the late atrocious Attack on your Majeſty's Royal Perſon.

Viewing with Horror and Concern the rapid Diſſemination, for ſome Time paſt, of Opinions and Doctrines ſo ſubverſive of all regular Governments, and ſo deſtructive to Society itſelf, and animated with the ſame Zeal for the Preſervation of our ineſtimable Conſtitution, and the ſame Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon, which originally prompted us to take up Arms, we feel that we ſhould ill diſcharge the Duty we owe to that Conſtitution, of which your Majeſty is the faithful Guardian, and to ourſelves, if we did not, at this critical Period, come forward with renewed Profeſſions of our Loyalty, and of our ſtedfaſt Determination to ſacrifice our Lives and Fortunes tunes in Defence of thoſe Bleſſings which theſe Kingdoms, under Providence, have ſo long enjoyed.

Permit us then, Sire, to aſſure you, that ſhould your Majeſty be ever driven to the painful Neceſſity of calling out the Energies of the Country for the Preſervation of our Conſtitution, from whence alone we can hope for Security of Perſon and Property, your Majeſty may rely with Confidence on the firm Support of the Beverley Independent Volunteers.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Derbyſhire Corps of Gentlemen and Yeomanry Cavalry.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Derbyſhire Corps of Gentlemen and Yeomanry Cavalry, beg Leave to preſent our moſt ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential Deliverance from the late daring and atrocious Attack made on your Royal Perſon, whilſt in the Diſcharge of the moſt important Functions of your exalted Station, aſſuring your Majeſty that we feel the utmoſt Indignation at ſo unmerited an Outrage.

Permit us, Sire, to avail ourſelves of this Opportunity of declaring, that the ſame Motives which firſt induced us to arm at the Appearance of threatened Calamity from the boaſted Invaſion of a foreign Enemy, and the ſeditious Conduct of ſome of your Majeſty's deluded Subjects, will ſtimulate us with the Zeal of Britons, whenever the Protection of your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Family, or the Laws and Conſtitution of our Country, may render it neceſſary.

[Preſented by Lieutenant-Colonel Bathurſt.]

St. James's, December 19.

THE following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted to his Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him preſented to the King; which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal and faithful Subjects, Inhabitants of the Metropolis and Parts adjacent, approach your Majeſty, at this Criſis, to expreſs our Grief for the daring and highly criminal Outrages that were lately committed, to the Danger of your Majeſty's Perſon, and to the Interruption of your Paſſage to your Parliament, to declare our Abhorrence and Deteſtation of ſuch diſloyal and ſeditious Attempts upon your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and to declare our Readineſs to ſacrifice every Thing we poſſeſs for the Protection of your Majeſty, in all the Honours, Reſpect and Reverence, as well as all the legal Authority belonging to your Royal State, being fully perſuaded as we are that nothing we poſſeſs, neither our Liberty nor our Property, can be ſafe, unleſs your Majeſty, the Guardian of the Laws, be in Safety.

We cannot contemplate this unexampled Inſult on your Majeſty without calling to our Minds thoſe Conſiderations that are ever before us, and make ſo ſignal a Contraſt with this diſloyal Outrage; the Tenor of your Majeſty's Government, ſo uniformly mild in every Part of it's Adminiſtration, the unbounded and [univerſal Demonſtrations of Loyalty and Affection among your Subjects, never more manifeſt than at this Moment, and the National Character of Britons, always averſe from Acts ſo ferocious and ſo unmanly. In the Midſt of ſuch Evidences of general Proſperity and Content, what Manner of Men muſt thoſe infatuated Few be who degenerate ſo from the reſt of their Countrymen; what can they promiſe themſelves, and by what Motives can they be actuated.

We are unwilling to bring to your Majeſty mere Expreſſions of Condolence and of Loyalty, at a Time when our Hearts are full of ſerious and alarming Reflections, ariſing from the late nefarious Outrage; we think it a Duty we owe your Majeſty, and an Obligation towards our Fellow Subjects, to take this Occaſion to lay before your Majeſty our firm Perſuaſion and Belief as to the true Cauſe of ſuch Outrage and Violence.

We beg humbly to ſubmit to your Majeſty, that the Heat and Intemperance diſcovered by the Offenders on that diſgraceful Day are to be aſcribed to a Deſign that has long been at Work for corrupting and inflaming the Minds of your Majeſty's Subjects againſt the good Laws and Government of this Kingdom. The Manner in which this Deſign is carried on has been laid open in the Reports of your Two Houſes of Parliament, during the laſt Seſſions of Parliament; and in the Trials of certain Perſons for High Treaſon. We daily ſee with what Activity and Perſeverance this Deſign is ſtill managed: The miſchievous Actors are continually employed, either in Clubs, at Political Debates, at Political Lectures, or at Meetings in the open Air; in all of which your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and the eſtabliſhed Laws, are openly traduced and ſcoffed at in the Hearing of many Hundreds of your Majeſty's Subjects. In ſuch Seminaries as theſe, Mens Minds are prepared for open and violent Atttacks on all lawful Authority; at ſuch Meetings the Profeſſors and Miſſionaries of Sedition tutor and madden their ignorant and fanatical Diſciples, whom they ſend forth to commit overt Acts of Miſchief.

The Progreſs of this Deſign, firſt for deſtroying a good Opinion of the Government and afterwards the Government itſelf, has been viewed by your loyal and peaceable Subjects with great Concern and Indignation, and they have been the more deeply impreſſed by a View of this growing Evil, becauſe they ſee by Experience that the Law, either in the Letter or in the Application of it, is not adequate to prevent or ſuppreſs it; and that the Contrivers of Miſchief act in open Defiance of Magiſtracy: The Conſequence is, that Diſaffection increaſes, and the Licentious deride the Law that cannot curb them.

The Diſgrace and Danger attending ſuch Want of Efficacy in the Laws have, as we believe, united the Majority of your Majeſty's Subjects in one general Wiſh, that the Law were rendered more energetic. The Parliament has been uſed on former Occaſions to reſtrain the Exceſſes of the Time with new Laws adapted to the Nature of them. If any public Miſchief deſerved a Remedy, and if any Time required it, we ſubmit that the preſent does. Never was the Foundation of the Government, and of Society itſelf, ſo threatened, and at no Time did the Nation manifeſt itſelf ſo prepared to receive, and indeed ſo plainly call for, ſome Regulations that would protect the good Subject againſt the bad, and the Proſperity of the Whole againſt the Machinations of a Few.

Your Majeſty's Subjects cannot but compare the Advantages enjoyed by the Profeſſors of Sedition above other public Exhibitors. They obſerve, that the Parliament has anxiouſly provided Reſtrictions upon Places of innocent Amuſement, where Money is paid for Admiſſion. Theatres and Places of that Sort are not permitted but by your Majeſty's Royal Patent, or by a Licence from the Magiſtrates, and every individual Dramatic Piece muſt previouſly be approved by the Lord Chamberlain of your Majeſty's Houſhold.

In theſe Inſtances the Legiſlature wiſely ſhewed their Concern for the Morals and Principles of the People, and as wiſely provided Regulation, not merely of Puniſhment but of Prevention. But the Teachers of Sedition open a Debating Society, or a Lecture, wherever they pleaſe, and promulge what Doctrines they think fit; and they have compleated their Miſchief before Puniſhment can overtake them, if it ever does; and although the Word of God cannot be preached in any other than the eſtabliſhed Churches without a previous Licence from the Magiſtrates, yet peſtilent Doctrines, deſtructive of all Government and ſocial Order, are inculcated every Evening to Crowds, without Interruption or Penalty.

We cannot but reflect on theſe Compariſons, and expreſs our deep Regret that the Promulgation of dangerous Opinions, reſpecting your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and the eſtabliſhed Laws, ſhould enjoy ſuch Impunity. Whether this ariſes from a Lenity in the Adminiſtration of the Laws, or the Law needs Amendment, we do not preſume to ſay; but we humbly lay theſe our ſerious Apprehenſions before your Majeſty, truſting to your Majeſty's Wiſdom for the Remedy, whether it may be by a more vigorous Execution of the preſent Laws, or by recommending to your Parliament to provide ſuch others as to their Wiſdom ſhall ſeem proper.

In thus praying your Majeſty to interpoſe for the Suppreſſion of this growing Miſchief by ſome new Meaſure, either of Exertion or Regulation, we hope we are juſtified becauſe we believe it is neceſſary, not only for your Majeſty's loyal and peaceable Subjects, to protect them and their Familes againſt the Deſigns of the Diſaffected, but alſo for the miſled and infatuated, to protect them againſt the inſinuating Arts of their Leaders in Sedition, and becauſe we believe that till the Door of theſe Conventicles for Sedition is ſhut there will be no Peace in the Land. We feel Confidence in this our humble Prayer when we conſider that your Majeſty is ſent for the Puniſhment of evil Doers, as well as for the Praiſe of them that do well.

We feel ourſelves wholly free from Cenſure in imploring your Majeſty to uſe your Authority againſt our Fellow Subjects, when we reflect that the utmoſt we wiſh is, ſome preventive Regulation that may protect the Offender againſt himſelf, by taking away the Opportunity of offending.

We are, may it pleaſe your Majeſty, with moſt inviolable Attachment, your Majeſty's moſt loyal, moſt dutiful, and moſt obedient Subjects.

[Tranſmitted by John Reeves, Eſq;]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Royal Society of Scottiſh Antiquaries, aſſembled in our Anniverſary Meeting, beg Leave to approach the Throne, and to mingle our moſt ſincere and cordial Congratulations with thoſe of your Majeſty's other well-affected Subjects, on the haypy Eſcape of your Majeſty from the daring and outragoeus Attack made on your ſacred Perſon upon the firſt Day of the preſent Seſſion of your Parliament.

At the ſame Time that we aſſure your Majeſty of our firm and unſhaken Attachment to your illuſtrious Family, and to that free Syſtem of Government which it has been uniformly zealous to maintain, we truſt that the Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Councils will adopt Meaſures for bringing to condign and examplary Puniſhmentt the Authors or Abettors of ſo wicked and atrocious an Attempt; and that the moſt ſalutary Regulations will be deviſed to ſecure the future Safety of your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, held ineſtimably dear to all your faithful Subjects.

We have obſerved, with the deepeſt Concern, that the Peace and good Order of your Majeſty's Kingdoms has for ſome Time paſt been diſturbed by a Set of wicked and deſigning Men; but we truſt that the Bill now depending in Parliament, when paſſed into a Law, will put an End to all ſeditious Meetings, and effectually check the Intentions of ſuch evil-diſpoſed Perſons.

Alex. Fergusſon, Vice-Preſident.

Sealed by Appointment,

Alex. Smellie, Secretary.

THE following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted or delivered to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department, have been by him preſented to the King; which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Miniſters and Elders of the Preſbytery of Stirling, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne, to expreſs our faithful Attachment and ſteady Loyalty to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government.

The Gratitude we owe to the Great Sovereign of the Univerſe for His continued Preſervation of your Majeſty's Majesty's Life, calls upon us, in a peculiar Manner, at this Time, to express our utmost Horror and Indignation at the late atrocious Attempt to deprive us of so inestimable a Blessing.

We humbly offer to your Majesty our heartfelt Congratulations upon the merciful Interposition of a kind Providence, in preserving you from the Violence of the Assassin; and, while we confide in the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, and in the Vigilance and Vigour of the Laws in bringing the Aggressor to condign Punishment, we firmly trust that the Shield of the Almighty will continue to protect and defend your Royal Person from every open and secret Enemy.

We have been Sharers in the general Happiness of Britons under your Majesty's mild Administration; we have beheld the Lustre of your private Virtues adorning your exalted Rank, and shedding a happy Influence upon all your loyal Subjects; and our earnest Prayers shall never cease to be offered up to the King of Kings and the Preserver of Nations, that your Majesty may long be preserved to reign over us, and that a Race descended of your illustrious House may fill the British Throne to latest Ages, to bless the Generations yet unborn.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishops and Clergy of the Scotch Episcopal Church.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishops and Clergy of the Scotch Episcopal Church, most humbly request your Royal Permission to approach the Throne with our sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the atrocious Act of Violence which was lately committed against your Majesty's sacred Person, in going to and from your Parliament.

Impressed with a just Sense of this merciful Interposition of the Divine Goodness, we have not failed to offer up our public Thanks and Praise to that gracious God, who, supporting your Majesty in the Exercise of your Royal Authority, has thus signally disappointed the Designs of your Enemies, and prevented the Accomplishment of those wild, licentious Purposes, which are not more hostile to your Majesty's Crown and Dignity than to the Peace and Prosperity of the British Empire. Convinced of the Danger to which they are exposed from the seditious Combinations of evil-minded Persons, we rely on the Wisdom of your Majesty's Parliament for adopting such Measures as may tend to the Safety of your Royal Person, and to the Order and good Government of your Kingdoms: And for promoting these desirable Ends, as far as lies in our Power, we shall continue (as we hitherto have done with Effect) to impress the Minds of those who adhere to our Ministry, with the purest Principles of Loyalty to your Majesty, and of Submission to the Laws.

That the Almighty Sovereign of the Universe may continue to take your Majesty under the peculiar Care of his watchful Providence, guard you from every Danger, and reward your anxious Concern for the Happiness of your People, with a firm Confidence in their Love and Attachment to your Royal Person, and your illustrious House, is, and shall ever be, the fervent Prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most faithful and obedient Subjects, the Bishops and Clergy of the Scotch Episcopal Church.

Downing-Street, December 19.

DISPATCHES, of which the following are Extracts, were received laſt Night from Robert Craufurd, Eſq; by the Right Honourable Lord Grenville, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Foreign Department.

Head Quarters of Marſhal Clerfaye's Army, Alzey, Dec. 2, 1795.

I HAVE the Honor to inform your Lordſhip that Marſhal Clerfaye, with that Part of his Army which during the Siege of Manheim had been encamped between the Rhine and Neuſtadt, arrived on the 29th in the Neighbourhood of Creutzenach, where it formed a Junction with General Wartenſleben's Corps, and took nearly the ſame Poſition that the latter has occupied for ſome Time paſt, the Right Flank being at Bingen, the Left on the Heights behind Creutzenach and Furfeld, and the advanced Poſts puſhed on beyond the Nahe.

General Kray, as ſoon as he was relieved from the Poſt of Neuſtadt, directed his March towards Wolfſtein; from whence, after having received Reinforcements from the Army, he was to advance by Lautereck and Meiſſenheim to turn the Right Flank of the Enemy, encamped near Zimmern, whilſt the main Body of the Army ſhould menace his Front.

General Kray could not arrive at Lauterecke before the 1ſt Inſtant. In the mean Time General Jourdan advanced with the Army of the Sambre and Meuſe, conſiſting of about Fifty-five Thouſand Men, drove back, on the 30th, the Auſtrian advanced Piquets that were on the other Side of the Nahe, and took a Poſition oppoſite to that of Marſhal Clerfaye's Army, his Right Flank being covered by One Diviſion poſted behind Lauterecke and Meiſſenheim on the Glahn, his Centre and Left extending along the Banks of the Nahe to the Rhine. At Bingen, which is ſituated at the Conflux of theſe Two Rivers, and on the Right Bank of the former there is a Stone Bridge over the Nahe; but it is equally difficult for either Party to undertake any Thing on this Quarter. From thence to Creutzenach, where there is alſo a Stone Bridge, the Nature of the Ground is much more favourable for the Enemy than for the Auſtrians, as the Hills on the Left Bank (that is, on the Enemy's Side) are very commanding, and cloſe to the Nahe; whereas, on the Right Bank there is a Plain of conſiderable Breadth, from which the Heights riſe in ſo gradual a Slope as to afford, in general, no Poſition for the Auſtrian Artillery near enough to defend the Paſſages of the River without being entirely commanded by the French Batteries on the oppoſite Side. Theſe Circumſtances exiſt in a peculiar Degree at Creutzenach itſelf; ſo much ſo, that Infantry poſted on the Hill called the Schloſsberg, on the Left Bank, can fire quite into the Town and on to the Bridge.

On the Morning of the 1ſt Inſtant the Enemy were ſeen in very great Force drawn up on the oppoſite Hills. About Nine o'Clock a large Body of Infantry, ſupported by the Fire of Artillery very advantageouſly placed on the Heights behind the Town, advanced to attack Creutzenach: The Auſtrians defended it with great Firmneſs, but the Diſadvantages of the Situation made it impoſſible for them to prevent the Enemy's at length getting Poſſeſſion of it, which happened at about Eleven o'Clock. The Auſtrians, however, having re-formed on this Side of the Town, advanced again, and attacked the French with ſo great Bravery, that they preſently drove them quite over the Bridge, and out of the Place.

The Enemy renewed the Attack with a large Body of freſh Troops, and the Auſtrians in the Town being extremely galled by the commanding Fire of the French Artillery, and by that of the Infantry on the Schloſsberg, and being totally unſupported by their own Cannon, (which, from the Nature of the Situation, could not be made Uſe of) they found it impracticable to maintain the Poſt: They therefore abandoned it a ſecond Time, and retired to the Heights, Heights, bringing away the only Piece of Artillery that had been employed in the Affair.

The Enemy contented themſelves with occupying the Bridge, and did not venture to ſhew themſelves on this Side of the Town.

The Loſs of the Auſtrians in this Affair amounts to near Five Hundred killed and wounded.

Fifty of the Enemy were taken Priſoners, and their Loſs in Killed and Wounded muſt have been conſiderable.

The having been obliged to abandon the Poſt of Creutzenach is not of any very material Conſequence, as the Army maintains exactly the ſame Poſition as before, excepting that the Part of the Line which is oppoſite that Place is thrown a little back, in order to occupy the moſt commanding Heights.

At the ſame Time that the above-mentioned Affair happened at Creutzenach, General Kray attacked and defeated a Corps of the Enemy at Lautereck, and entirely cut to Pieces and took Two whole Battalions. The Number of Priſoners are Eight Officers and One Hundred and Fifty Men. General Kray occupies Lautereck.

Head Quarters of Marſhal Clerfaye's Army, Alzey, December 5, 1795.

THE Situation of the Auſtrian Armies on this Side of the Rhine is at preſent as follows, viz.

Marſhal Clerfaye's behind the Nahe, from Bingen to the Heights behind Volckſheim (near Creutzenach) and Furfield. Two or Three Battalions at Allentz and other Villages to the Left, to keep up the Communication with General Kray's Corps, which is at Lautereck and Wolfſtein, and has lately been reinforced by ſome Battalions from the Army. General Nauendorf is in March from Kayſerſlautern, which Poſt, and thoſe dependent on it, as Franckenſtein, Nipſtedt, and Hockſpier, were this Day occupied by a Detachment of General Wurmſer's Army. Another ſtrong Corps of that Army extends from Newſtadt, behind the Speierbach and Rechbach, to the Rhine, occupying Speier, &c.

Frankfort, December 2.

BY Accounts from the Auſtrian Army it appears, that the Enemy's Loſs, in the Battle of the 14th of November, amounted to about Five Thouſand Men, beſides about Seven Hundred Priſoners; and that Twenty-two Pieces of Cannon, with above One Hundred Ammunition Waggons, and ſome conſiderable Magazines of different Kinds, were taken by the Auſtrians; and other Magazines, and Numbers of Ammunition Waggons, deſtroyed by the Enemy in their Retreat.

ESCAPE.

WHereas Richard Lee, late of the Strand, in the County of Middleſex, Bookſeller, ſtands indicted for publiſhing a traiterous and ſeditious Libel intitled "King Killing," and alſo for publiſhing Two other traiterous and ſeditious Libels, and being apprehended and conveyed, by Lord Chief Juſtice Kenyon's Tipſtaff, to the Houſe of Thomas Wright, One of the Officers of the Sheriff of Middleſex, for ſafe Cuſtody until he ſhould find Sureties to anſwer the ſaid Indictments or be committed to Priſon, eſcaped out of ſuch Cuſtody on the Evening of Wedneſday the 9th Day of this Inſtant December: The Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, in order that the ſaid Richard Lee may be brought to Juſtice for the Offences whereof he is indicted, are hereby pleaſed to offer a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Perſon who ſhall diſcover the ſaid Richard Lee, ſo that he may be retaken and committed, and dealt with according to Law. The ſaid Richard Lee is a very young Man, of a boyiſh Appearance, about Five Feet Seven Inches high, wears his own Hair in his Neck, is of a pale Complexion, thin Viſage, and very ſlender.
